

Fort Loggy near Lisbon GA

Start: 7/30/1776 Location: Fort Loggy
 End: 8/1/1776 Latitude: 33.296
 Longitude: -82.35

Summary

Capt. Elijah Clarke's Company was guarding some goods (goods of Jacob Patterson and Richard Woods) that were being moved from Petersburg and were attacked about five miles from Fort Loggy. They were attacked by Indians and three men were killed and three wounded. Killed were Jacob Patterson, Giles Tillet (Tiblet) and Peter Davis. Wounded were Captain Clarke (shot in the knee), Job Hinton and James Smith. Then Clarke's Company moved to Clarke's Station and another battle ensued (Charles Gent S-1903 and David H. Thurmond S-32010).

Historical Account		Patriots Identified
Killed	3	Survivor	4
Wounded	3	Killed	3
		Wounded	4

Battle References

Davis, Georgia Citizens and Soldiers of the American Revolution, 166.

Patriots at Fort Loggy near Lisbon GA

Officers

Roster	Pension	Rank	Outcome
Clarke, Elijah	U000126	Captain	Wounded
Dooly, John	U000127	Captain	Survivor
Pulliam, William	R-20425	Captain	Wounded
Smith, Burwell	U000152	Major	Survivor

Enlisted

Roster	Pension	Rank	Outcome
Gent, Charles	S-1903	Private	Survivor
Thurmond, David H.	S-32010	Sergeant	Survivor

Other

Roster	Pension	Rank	Outcome
Davis, Peter	U000230	Unknown	Killed
Hinton, Job	U000762	Unknown	Wounded
Patterson, Jacob	U000232	Unknown	Killed
Smith, James	U000761	Unknown	Wounded
Tulet (Tillet), Giles	U000231	Unknown	Killed